Feast Day of Blessed Stanley Rother

On May 25, 1963, Stanley Rother, a farmer from Okarche, Oklahoma, was ordained for his home diocese of Oklahoma City-Tulsa. Having flunked out of the area seminary due to his difficulty with Latin, Fr. Rother finally accepted an invitation to attend Mount St. Mary Seminary in Maryland, where he finished his studies and was approved for ordination.

After serving in his local diocese for five years, Fr. Rother joined five priests, three religious sisters, and three laypersons to staff a Guatemalan mission in Santiago Atitlán serving the Tz'utujil people. The Oklahoma City diocese heard the call of Pope John XXIII to send missionaries to foreign lands, especially Central America. These twelve individuals felt the call, and with their bishop's approval, left the comforts of the United States to live and work in Guatemala.

By 1975, Fr. Rother was alone at his parish in Santiago Atitlán, the others having returned home for various reasons. He served the Tz'utujil people for 13 years and won their hearts and souls. Ever the farmer, and always unpretentious and mild mannered, Fr. Rother experimented with various crops as well as fulfilling his heavy pastoral duties which included as many as five Masses in four different locations on a given Sunday and as many as 1,000 baptisms a year.

Guatemala's civil war reached the highlands and Lake Atitlán by 1980. Government troops camped on the parish farm and Fr. Rother witnessed the assassination of a number of his parishioners, including the parish deacon.

Warned of imminent danger, Fr. Rother returned to the United States for three months early in 1981, to visit with his family and friends. Against the advice of his family and the local bishop, Fr. Rother returned to Atitlán to be with his people. He remembered a Sisters' community who had fled the country and later tried to return but the people asked, "Where were you when we needed you?"

On the evening of July 28, three masked men entered the rectory and shot Fr. Rother to death. His beloved parishioners mourned him repeatedly crying, "They have killed our priest."

Pope Francis declared Stanley Rother a martyr on December 2, 2016. He was beatified in Oklahoma City on September 23, 2017.

Fiesta del Beato Stanley Rother

El 25 de mayo de 1963, Stanley Rother, un agricultor de Okarche, Oklahoma, fue ordenado para su diócesis de Oklahoma City-Tulsa. Habiendo fracasado en el seminario del área debido a su dificultad con el latín, el Padre Rother finalmente aceptó una invitación para asistir al Seminario Mount St. Mary en Maryland, donde terminó sus estudios y fue aprobado para la ordenación.

Después de servir en su diócesis local durante cinco años, el Padre Rother se unió a cinco sacerdotes, tres religiosas y tres laicos para formar una misión guatemalteca en Santiago Atitlán al servicio del pueblo Tz'utujil. La diócesis de la ciudad de Oklahoma escuchó el llamado del Papa Juan XXIII para enviar misioneros a tierras extranjeras, especialmente Centroamérica. Estas doce personas sintieron el llamado, y con la aprobación de su obispo, dejaron las comodidades de los Estados Unidos para vivir y trabajar en Guatemala.

En 1975, el Padre Rother estaba solo en su parroquia en Santiago Atitlán, los otros habían regresado a casa por varias razones. Sirvió a la gente Tz'utujil por 13 años y ganó sus corazones y almas. Siempre el granjero, y siempre sin pretensiones y de con suaves modos, El Padre. Rother experimentó con varios cultivos y cumplió con sus pesados deberes pastorales, que incluyeron hasta cinco misas en cuatro lugares diferentes en un domingo determinado y hasta 1.000 bautizos al año.

La guerra civil de Guatemala llegó a las tierras altas y al lago de Atitlán en 1980. Las tropas del gobierno acamparon en la granja parroquial y el padre. Rother presenció el asesinato de varios de sus feligreses, incluido el diácono de la parroquia.

Advertido del peligro inminente, el Padre Rother regresó a los Estados Unidos durante tres meses a principios de 1981, para visitar a su familia y amigos. Contra el consejo de su familia y del obispo local, el Padre Rother regresó a Atitlán para estar con su gente. Recordó a una comunidad de hermanas que había huido del país y luego intentó regresar, pero la gente preguntó: "¿Dónde estabas cuando te necesitábamos?"

En la tarde del 28 de julio, tres hombres enmascarados entraron a la rectoría y le dispararon al Padre. Rother y le dieron muerte. Sus queridos feligreses lo lloraron repetidamente, "Han matado a nuestro sacerdote".

El Papa Francisco declaró a Stanley Rother mártir el 2 de diciembre de 2016. Fue beatificado en Oklahoma City el 23 de septiembre de 2017.

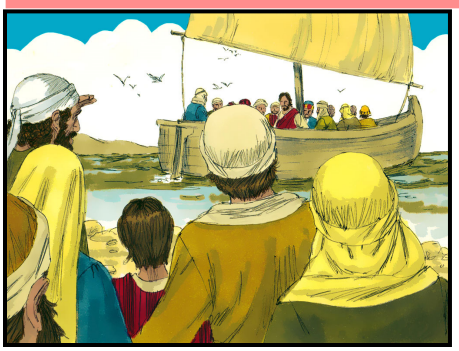
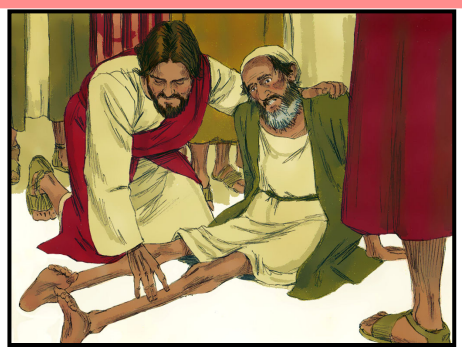
The Gospel According To John





Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"

Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat.

When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world."

Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

Since the age of 12, William Francis Cook (aka Father Emil) wanted to serve the poor in Latin America. In March 1970, he arrived in Olancho, Honduras, where he soon became the parish priest for the municipalities of Gualaco and San Esteban. At that time, living conditions were primitive: no electricity, no phones and little food for the people. Fr. Emil's vision was to educate the poor so that the children could become self-sufficient as adults. Throughout, his goal was never to offer a "hand out" to the poor and "give them a fish." Instead, his aim was to "teach them to fish" and enable the poor to become self-sufficient and accept help via a "hands up" philosophy.

In time, Fr. Cook and a group of university graduates formed APUFURM. APUFRAM's purpose is to provide academic and spiritual education to the poor children of Honduras. Since they formed in 1986, they have been committed to their motto, "God, Study, Work," and to offering the poor the same opportunities they were provided.

The Patriarch House invites you to hear Fr. Emil speak about APUFURM and the impact fellow Christians have had on the lives of the poor of Honduras. Please join us on Monday August 6th at 6:30 pm at the patriarch House.

Desde la edad de 12 años, William Francis Cook (también conocido como el Padre Emil) quería servir a los pobres en América Latina. En marzo de 1970, llegó a Olancho, Honduras, donde pronto se convirtió en párroco de los municipios de Gualaco y San Esteban. En ese momento, las condiciones de vida eran primitivas: no había electricidad, ni teléfonos y poca comida para la gente. La visión del Padre Emil era educar a los pobres para que los niños pudieran ser autosuficientes como adultos. En todo momento, su objetivo nunca fue ofrecer una "mano" a los pobres y "darles un pez". En cambio, su objetivo era "enseñarles a pescar" y permitir que los pobres sean autosuficientes y acepten ayuda a través de una filosofía de "manos arriba".

Con el tiempo, el Padre Cook y un grupo de graduados universitarios formaron APUFURM. El propósito de APUFRAM es proporcionar educación académica y espiritual a los niños pobres de Honduras. Desde que se formaron en 1986, se han comprometido con su lema, "Dios, estudiar, trabajar" y ofrecer a los pobres las mismas oportunidades que se les proporcionaron.

La Casa del Patriarca (Patriarch House) te invita a escuchar al Padre. Emil hablando sobre APUFURM y el impacto que los hermanos cristianos han tenido en la vida de los pobres de Honduras. Únase a nosotros el lunes 6 de agosto a las 6:30 p.m.

Q&A

Where does the money from the "Black Bag Collection" go?

¿A dónde va el dinero de la "Bolsa negra"?

Answer: Your generous donations go to the local conference of the Saint Vincent de Paul Society, an international non-profit organization that helps the less fortunate in our community and all over the world. As you know our Food Pantry, located across the street from our church, helps feed hundreds of families each month. In addition to our Food Pantry, volunteers of the SVdP Society visit people in need of assistance with their utility bills to avoid sometimes critical shut-offs especially during times of extreme heat and cold. The SVdP Society with your help has been able to serve thousands of needy in our community for the last 15 years. We thank you for your continued compassion and support of this ministry. If you are interested in also donating your time to the Society please contact Betty Eccleston at Dennisbettyeccleston@gmail.com. God Bless you!

Respuesta: Sus generosas donaciones van a la conferencia local de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, una organización internacional sin fines de lucro que ayuda a los menos afortunados en nuestra comunidad y en todo el mundo. Como usted sabe, nuestra despensa de alimentos, ubicada al otro lado de la calle de nuestra iglesia, ayuda a alimentar a cientos de familias cada mes. Además de nuestra Despensa de Alimentos, los voluntarios de la Sociedad SVdP visitan a las personas que necesitan asistencia con sus facturas de servicios públicos para evitar cierres críticos a veces, especialmente en épocas de calor y frío extremos. La Sociedad SVdP con su ayuda ha sido capaz de servir a miles de necesitados en nuestra comunidad durante los últimos 15 años. Le agradecemos su continua compasión y apoyo a este ministerio. Retreat in Daily Life

A 30-Week Retreat Based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatious
October 2018 - April 2019

Retreat in Daily Life (RIDL) is the common designation of the 19th Annotation St. Ignatius of Loyola wrote into his Spiritual Exercises. These spiritual exercises evolved through St. Ignatius' own experience as he transformed from a soldier to a servant of our loving God. As you mirror his prayerful journey, following the life, teachings, death and resurrection of Jesus, you will prayerfully encounter a loving God and desire to become all you were created to be.

FIRST STEPS: If you are interested in RIDL, contact one of the facilitators listed to schedule an initial interview. Interviews will take place July 1 through August 31. The interview process is an opportunity for you to learn more about the retreat, to discern with a facilitator whether or not you are ready to make the retreat at this time, and to begin prayer practices that prepare a person for the retreat experience.

FEES: The fee for the retreat is $70.00 per month. The stipend for twice-monthly Spiritual Direction is $20.00 per session.
In keeping with the Rule of St. Benedict governing hospitality, those who have been blessed with more may wish to contribute more, and those who have less, give less so that "all may be at peace in the house of God."

FORMAT: During the course of 30 weeks -- from October through April -- retreatants live their commitment to God, to themselves and to their fellow participants by following the steps of this prayer journey. Each retreatant commits to these three experiences:

Individual 19th annotation retreat experiences will be considered upon request.

Book Signing Desbrow Stewart, a parishioner at St. Bernard in Bella Vista will have a book signing in the Gathering Space next weekend after the Masses. God's Courageous Carpenter: The Life of Saint Joseph will be on sale and Mr. Stewart will be available to discuss his research.

Saint Joseph was chosen by God to be the husband of Mary, the Mother of the Messiah. Two of the Gospels of the New Testament mention St. Joseph very briefly: the Gospel of Matthew and the Gospel of Luke. Research for this book has allowed the author to amplify what is contained in the Gospels concerning this great patriarch of the Church. That research disclosed the true story of St. Joseph's life, including his struggles with his parents concerning his chosen vocation, his marriage to his first wife, their children, and the death of his first wife during childbirth.
